Statement of Victim

Coaxing young men to join the Armed Forced

On the 5th May 2006, 2nd Corporal Kyaw Kyaw of (N0-8) Combat Recruits Training School, tried to persuade (4) young boy, who were doing cleaning jobs at weekends at the Tut Oo monastery, xxxxxxxx ward, Ponnagyune Township, Rakhaing State. These (4) young boys xxxxxxxx (16 years old), xxxxxxxx (17 years old), xxxxxxxx (17 years old) and xxxxxxxx (16 years old), were doing this voluntary work after getting through their High School Examination.

The 2nd corporal enticed them to join the army by saying that they would have to learn the use of computer and other technology without having to fight should they become soldiers. He than invited the boys to visit his army barracks. He than sent the visiting boys to Combat Recruits Training School at Sittwe reporting to his senior officer that these boys came to join the army. The boys denied the fact and refused to join the army and begged the officer to send them back.

The officer refused to listen to their leas but sent them to the combat Training School, after scolding and threatening them. At the training school they had to plant trees, dig drains and clean the compound. After about (2) weeks, their respective parents got the news about their sons. They were not allowed to see their sons but were told to go back after scolding them.

On 3rd June 2006 night xxxxxxxx and his (3) friends escaped from the army camp. Fearing capture, these boys are staying in a safe place away from their homes. News got around that corporal Kyaw Kyaw who enticed the boys to join the army was promoted to the rank of sergeant.
